Keya joined the firm in February of 2025 as an associate attorney. Prior to joining Childress Ahlheim Cary LLC, she practiced as an Assistant Public Defender in Lincoln County, MO where her areas of practice included juvenile law, misdemeanor and felony offenses. Additionally, she has served in the Armed Forces as an Automated Logistics Specialist, Observer Coach Training and Paralegal Specialist since September 2013. She prides herself on her unwavering commitment to pursue the best outcome for her clients.

When she is not advocating for her clients, Keya can be found running half marathons and spending quality time with her husband, Tony and their niece, Na'Zalyia. She is an avid Baltimore Ravens and Orioles fan.
